KOHKOZ

Sharing the authentic flavours and colourful heritage of Lebanese cuisine with New Zealanders is something KohkoZ founder Natalie Fakhoury has always been passionate about. Her products are made in small batches using traditional family recipes and all-natural ingredients with no added colours or preservatives. The new range has been an instant hit with Farro shoppers.

For the Love of Garlic, in particular, is a Lebanese classic. Also try the KohkoZ Traditional Hummus, Smoky Baba Ghanoush or the KohkoZ Lebanese Pita Bread – perfect for dipping. Find these in our deli and bakery. For more info on the KohkoZ range see
